

Kim Reed

August 4

Hoping that the lack of signage outside my polling place today (Poquonock) means that the fifth time is the charm. Would seriously like to focus on how to change this process so that we can prevent so many referendums (and wasted money) in the future.

Like Comment

23 people like this.

Comments

Al Simon I think the best outcome is a budget process that is complete by June 30--the end of the budget year. Open ended budget process is no way to run a government. Not all towns with referenda do it like us. There is a better way to skin the cat, but it will take charter change to do it.

August 4 at 9:49am · Like · 1

Tim Connolly I would like to see a budget for 2 years similar to the state. Have the budget voted in the same year we have our town council and BOE elections .

August 4 at 12:05pm · Like · 1

Al Simon Thats an interesting idea

August 4 at 12:10pm · Like · 2

Tim Curtis A Council-appointed charter revision commission with the express directive of making our budget process less draconian would bring out some very interesting suggestions.

August 4 at 1:23pm · Like · 2

Priscilla Ford We are a YES--Windsor NEEDS to have great schools---we just might have to pay for the privilege! It is an act of self preservation.

August 4 at 1:31pm · Like

Doug Hardy I agree with Tim - a charter revision commission specific to the town's finances would be helpful.

I've been unhappy about only one thing specific to governance since moving to Windsor in 2005 - the loss of taxable property to Loomis Chaffee. They bu...See More

August 4 at 4:40pm · Like · 1